New York State Contract Reporter, 1996

North Country Lifestyle Jewel L Reiersen, In 1975, Darlene M. Reiersen, a self-proclaimed "city girl," and her husband, Brien, embarked on what so many people dream of doing but rarely attempt: a completely off-the-grid lifestyle, eking a living in the unforgiving wilderness of northern British Columbia, Canada. They spent the next several decades moving back and forth between a series of cabins they built with their own hands while logging, prospecting, trapping, hunting, fishing, gathering, and growing their own food. Throughout their years in the wilderness, Darlene was a relentless journaler, recording the highs and lows of modern homesteading in the mountains as she and Brien raised their two daughters. This book contains the second volume of Darlene's journals, picking up at the point where their daughters have left home, and she and Brien are making a go of it themselves. Living on the edge as they did, however, tragedy was forever lurking right around the corner, and it struck hard during this phase of their lives. Despite their struggles against nature and the darkness of loss and grief, one thing that shines through is the Reiersons' faith in their God. This alone is that gives Darlene the strength to continue moving forward in the face of tragedy. Also included in this book are several family trees and other genealogical information plus dozens of photos highlighting the Reiersons adventures and depicting their ancestors.

Absolute Swine Mike O'Connor, 2017-03 Loud, drunk and obnoxious. That's just Bob Benkinsog's horse. The owner of this animal is a pot-bellied pig of a farmer, whose most strenuous daily activity is the lifting of alcohol filled receptacles to his mouth. But, even in the bizarre world of the Benkinsog family, a drunken horse calls for professional intervention. Enter a narcissistic vet called Adonis Longwilly. With some characters taking over the narration at various points and others behaving as if they wish they were in a much better novel, this is a comically surreal story of lust, greed, corruption and gratuitous use of foul language. WARNING. If you are offended by graphic descriptions of things that you might find offensive, this book contains them. But you should read it anyway.

Yeti II Jeff Wright, 2016-10-12 YETI II starts with one horrific event that collides with a mind-numbing scenario, creating a paramount story of ultimate terror. Deep within the Alaskan wilderness, Lara Marshall awaits her husband and boy's return from hunting. When one of their horses shows up at the cabin, Lara panics. She rides out and finds Roy and her son Phillip severely mauled by a bear. Her other boy, Eric - is missing. Unexpectedly, Travis Reed - ex Army Ranger who has come to Alaska to live in the wilderness, ventures upon her cabin. What he finds is a gruesome sight. Lara is out of her mind. After settling her down, she tells him everything; especially the condition of the bear. The animal had been torn to pieces. While Travis and Lara are out searching for Eric, Whitetail gets word of the terrifying event. Her gut instinct knows what happened. She must find Eric - quick. After crossing the western mountain range where the bear attack occurred, Whitetail and Jim come upon a young woman named Judy, running from evil men. The men captured her boyfriend Mike. They were after the gold the two discovered while working at a mining camp. Judy warns Whitetail that the mining camp is full of vultures - anyone who goes there seems to disappear. Prepare yourself for a terrifying journey as the search for Eric turns into a poisonous web of evil when Whitetail finds herself riding into Ken Barkley's mining camp all alone.

Innovations in Government Sanford F. Borins, 2009-12-01 A Brookings Institution Press and Ash Center for Democratic Governance and Innovation publication The Innovations in American Government Awards Program began in 1985 with a grant from the Ford Foundation to the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard to conduct a program of awards for innovations in state and local government. The foundation's objective was ambitious and, in an era of government is the problem rhetoric, determinedly proactive. It sought to counter declining public confidence in government by highlighting innovative and effective programs. Over twenty years later, research, recognition, and replication are the source of the program's continuing influence and its vitality. What is the future of government innovation? How can innovation enhance the quality of life for citizens and strengthen democratic governance? Innovations in Government: Research, Recognition, and Replication answers these questions by presenting a comprehensive approach to advancing the practice and study of innovation in government. The authors discuss new research on innovation, explore the impact of several programs that recognize innovation, and consider challenges to the replication of innovations. Contributors include Eugene Bardach (University of California-Berkeley), Robert Behn (Harvard University), John D. Donahue (Harvard University), Marta Ferreira Santos Farah (Center for Public Administration and Government, Fundação Getulio Vargas), Archon Fung (Harvard University), Jean Hartley (University of Warwick), Steven Kelman (Harvard University), Gowher Rizvi (Ash Institute for Democratic Governance and Innovation, Harvard University), Peter Spink (Center for Public Administration and Government, Fundação Getulio Vargas), and Jonathan Walters (Governing).
